Noobai Café

One of Lisbon's most recognisable features is its myriad outdoor seating areas, known as esplanades. Surrounded by painted iron fences, it's rare to come across a café or restaurant that doesn't have one. Noobai boasts two, both with stunning views of the river, and is a relaxed beach-style bar with a healthy Mediterranean menu. It even provides blankets for customers who want to watch the sun set on cooler evenings. We suggest doing so with a glass of Noobai's excellent watermelon juice. Miradouro do Adamastor, T 21 346 5014, www.noobaicafe.com
